Preface

The Directory of ECA-sponsored subregional and regional institutions in Africa is a publication of the Pan African Development Information System (PADIS) of the United Nations Economic Commission for Africa. The Directory derives from PADIS' referral data base, PADinst, on research and development institutions in Africa. The purpose of both the database and its printed product, the Directory, is to ensure readily available and current information on the capacities of subregional and regional institutions in Africa.

PADIS feels that by providing this information the Directory can assist in the sharing within Africa of expertise, experience, know-how and facilities of these institutions. As such it is part of PADIS' contribution to Technical Co-operation among Developing Countries and especially Technical Co-operation between African Countries.

This is the second edition of the Directory of ECA-sponsored subregional and regional institutions in Africa. The first edition was produced in 1988. At the request of the eleventh meeting of Chief Executives of ECA-sponsored Institutions held in Addis Ababa in 1991, this Directory will now become an annual publication. However, in order to do this, the full co-operation of each ECA-sponsored institution in gathering the necessary data will be required.

This edition contains information on 38 institutions sponsored by the ECA, in fields from advisory services and aerial surveys to wind and water management, located in 21 countries from Algeria to Zambia. The largest concentration, with more than 4 institutions in each category, are in regional co-operation technical and economic co-operation, research, management, standardization and training. The highest concentration of institutions is found in Kenya and Nigeria, with five each, and in Ethiopia, which hosts four ECA-sponsored institutions.

I would like to thank everyone who participated in the preparation of the Directory.

The Directory of African Development Institutions is composed of four parts:

Institution Index
Subject Index
Country Index.

The Institution Index provides a profile of the institutions, their objectives and activities, arranged alphabetically by name of institutions. For institutions situated in anglophone countries the English name of the institution is used as the sorting key; for institutions situated in francophone countries the French name is used. Wherever existing the official translation into the respective other language is given. Each entry comprises the following information:

Name of institution	In full, as provided; acronyms are added where officially existing. In francophone countries the French version of the name is used for alphabetical sorting in the institution index.
Translated name of institution	Wherever an official translation exists, the translation in English or French is given.
Address	Mailing address of the institution as provided; additional information can include: telephone, fax number, telex, and telegram. Telephone and fax numbers are preceded by the country code (indicated by the + sign) and, where applicable, by the area code in brackets.
Name of Director or Head	Name as provided
Year of establishment of Institution	Year as provided
Major Donor of Finance	Institutions, groups and other type of donors as provided
Member States of Institution	Country codes according to International Organization for Standardization (ISO) Alpha-2 Country Code <sup>1</sup> , or names/acronyms of other members as provided
Type of institution	Indication whether institution is public, private, parastatal, non-profit, profit making, or other

Parent Organization	If any, as provided
Number of professional staff	Number as provided
Working Languages	According to ISO Language Code <sup>2</sup>
Geographical coverage	Geographical coverage of institution

Name of information service	If any: as provided
Title and periodicity of publications	If any: as provided
Descriptors	Key words used to establish the English terms in the subject index

The Subject Index is provided to facilitate the location of institutions in the institution index on the basis of their objectives and fields of activities. The subject index uses the descriptors of the United Nations Macrothesaurus<sup>3</sup>.

A Country Index has also been included to facilitate access to the information contained in the institution index.

The DEVINDEX series contains data from PADIS' own bibliographical data base, PADDEV, devoted to economic, technological and social development information on Africa. From 1987 onwards, four issues of DEVINDEX Africa have been produced per year. Generally these issues contain new entries in the PADIS data base but the contents sometimes also focus on specific fields of interest (e.g. women and development, agriculture, drought and desertification, etc.). Usually the fourth issue of a given year is a cumulation of all entries for that year.

Up to date (January 1992) the following issues have been produced and are still available on request:

The Directory of African Development Institutions contains information about African institutions which support the promotion of social and economic development in the region. A preliminary issue of selected institutions, the ECA-sponsored institutions, was produced in 1988. The issue, published in November 1991, is more comprehensive and establishes the first volume of an on-going series.

PADIS Newsletter is issued quarterly by the PADIS Central Co-ordinating Office (CCO) in Addis Ababa, Ethiopia. The aim of the Newsletter is to keep individuals and institutions informed about PADIS activities and services.

In the near future (1992/93) two additional series of publications will be established:

Directory of On-going Research Projects
African Country Profiles

The Directory of On-going Research Projects was initiated during a PADIS/Eastern and Southern African Universities Research Programme (ESAURP) meeting held in Nairobi, Kenya, 18 - 19 January 1988. The aim of this directory is to open channels of communication between researchers and institutions, to facilitate contacts with users by providing information and referrals, and to help to generate active exchange of information among the researchers on various aspects of their areas of research interest, thus minimizing the incidence of duplication of research effort and promoting the mutual sharing of the experience available in the African region.

African Country Profiles will contain comprehensive information on all ECA member states. The profiles will include PADIS bibliographical information, statistical data from the PADstat data base and information from other sources and data bases within and outside the UN system. It is planned to update the information on a regular basis and to publish revised editions every two years.

PADIS welcomes suggestions for the creation of new data bases, bibliographical or statistical, and for new publications conforming to the mandate of the project.
