DRAFT REPORT OF THE SECOND SESSION OF THE CONFERENCE OF AFRICAN MINISTERS OF FINANCE

A. INTRODUCTION

1. Pursuant to the Economic Commission for Africa's Conference of Ministers resolution 541 (XX) of 29 April 1985 which formally established the Conference of African Ministers of Finance to deal with all issues relating to money and finance, the second session of the Conference of African Ministers of Finance was held in Libreville, Gabon from 18 to 21 June 1986. Previously, the Conference of African Ministers of Finance had met in Addis Ababa in June 1984 to consider Africa's External Indebtedness. The purpose of the Conference was twofold : first to consider the reports of the second, third and fourth meetings of the Intergovernmental Group of Experts on the Establishment of an African Monetary Fund, and to take a decision on the proposed Articles of Agreement; and secondly, to consider the progress report on the preparations for an International Conference on Africa's External Indebtedness proposed by the African Heads of State and Government at their summit held in July 1985.

B. ATTENDANCE

2. The Conference of African Ministers of Finance was attended by representatives of the following thirty-five countries : Algeria, Benin, Burundi, Cameroon, Cape Verde, Central African Republic, Chad, Comoros, Congo, Côte d'Ivoire, Egypt, Equatorial Guinea, Gabon, Ghana, Gambia, Guinea, Lesotho, Libyan Arab Jamahiriya, Malawi, Mauritania, Morocco, Niger, Nigeria, Rwanda, Sao Tome and Principe, Senegal, Sierra Leone, Sudan, Togo, Tunisia, Uganda, United Republic of Tanzania, Zaire, Zambia and Zimbabwe.

3. Representatives of the following institutions attended the Conference as observers : Arab Monetary Fund (AMF), Banque centrale des Etats de l'Afrique de l'Ouest (BCEAO), Banque de développement des Etats de l'Afrique centrale (BDEAC), Banque des Etats de l'Afrique centrale (BEAC), Banque ouest-africaine de développement (BOAD), Communauté économique des Etats de l'Afrique centrale (CEEAC), International Monetary Fund (IMF), Union douanière des Etats de l'Afrique centrale (UDEAC), United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), West African Clearing House (WACH).

4. The meeting was serviced by the secretariats of the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA) and the Organization of African Unity (OAU) assisted by the African Development Bank and the African Centre for Monetary Studies.

C. OPENING OF THE CONFERENCE

5. In his statement, Prof. Adebayo Adedeji, United Nations Under-secretary-General and Executive Secretary of the Economic Commission for Africa, expressed his deep gratitude to His Excellency Al Hadj Omar Bongo, President of the Republic of Gabon, the Government and people of Gabon for their offer to host the Conference and for the warm welcome extended to participants. The Executive Secretary also thanked the Government and people of Algeria for their generous contribution to the United Nations Trust Fund for African Development which enabled the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA) to prepare the feasibility study and other documents relating to the establishment of the African Monetary Fund and for convening the meetings of the intergovernmental expert Group. He emphasized that following the decision of our Heads of State and Governments, the question before the Ministers was not whether or not to establish an African Monetary Fund but rather how best to establish such a Fund.

6. After highlighting some of the main causes of the crisis through which Africa is going at the moment he pointed out that the African Monetary Fund, once established, would assist in eliminating some of the problems in monetary and financial co-operation which would strengthen Africa's capacity to deal with future crises should they occur. In this respect, he pointed out that the experts had made firm recommendations on a number of important issues and the Conference of Ministers was expected to take decisions on them. He also requested the Conference to pay special attention to outstanding issues which the experts could not resolve : namely (a) definition of membership in the Fund; (b) whether or not to open the capital of the Fund to external participation and if so to what extent; (c) whether or not payment subscriptions should be made in both convertible and national currencies and in what proportions and (d) the size of the Board of Executive Directors and whether or not they should be resident at the Headquarters of the Fund from the date of commencement of its operations.

7. In his statement Mr. Ide Oumarou, Secretary General of the Organization of African Unity, expressed his thanks to His Excellency Al Hadj Omar Bongo, President of the Republic of Gabon as well as to the Government and people of Gabon for their generous offer to host the Conference of Ministers of Finance and for the warm welcome extended to the participants since their arrival. He enumerated some of the important African meetings that the Republic of Gabon had hosted in the past and which clearly demonstrated the commitment of the Republic of Gabon and its President to unity and peace in Africa. He went on to state that the present meeting had a very precise agenda, namely, the consideration of the mechanisms for establishing an African Monetary Fund and preparation for an international Conference on Africa's external indebtedness requested by OAU.

8. With regard to the recent Special Session of the United Nations' General Assembly on Africa's economic crisis, he pointed out that African partners made it clear during the session that money must be earned through hard work, efficient organization and mobilisation and good use of the resources of the African continent. Africa should therefore implement all the provisions of the "African document" that Africans, themselves have elaborated. Finally, he thanked the Secretariats of the Economic Commission for Africa (ECA), the African Development Bank (ADB), the African Centre for Monetary Studies (ACMS) and the African Central Banks for the good work they have put together with the Organization of African Unity (OAU) in preparing for this meeting.

9. In formally opening the Conference, His Excellency Mr. Leon Mebiane, Prime Minister of the Republic of Gabon, on behalf of his Excellency Al Hadj Omar Bongo, President of the Republic of Gabon and on behalf of the Government and people of Gabon welcomed the Ministers to Libreville, the capital city of Gabon. He assured them that the Republic of Gabon felt honoured to host such a Conference on its territory and hoped that the facilities put at the disposal of the Conference would enable the participants to conclude their deliberations.

10. He went on to highlight some of the major factors contributing to the present African economic crisis and particularly the external monetary and financial factors over which Africa has no control whatsoever. This, the Prime Minister said, was mainly due to the absence of an African mechanism for consultations and for the adoption of common positions vis-à-vis international monetary and financial problems. The establishment of an African Monetary Fund would go a long way towards overcoming this handicap and strengthening Africa's negotiating capacity within the world's monetary and financial system. Africa should rely on itself first and devise the mechanisms necessary for such self-reliance.

11. The Prime Minister, then recalled some of the problems generated by the external debt crisis and the burden which such a crisis has put on the prospects for Africa's economic development. With regard to the proposed international conference on Africa's external indebtedness called for by the 21st Summit of the Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity, the Prime Minister hoped that the ministers would come up with concrete suggestions on the preparation for the conference whose success was of prime importance for the continent.

12. He then declared the session of the Conference of African Ministers of Finance open.

(c) whether or not payments of subscriptions by regional member States should be made in both convertible and national currencies and if so in what proportion;

10. Adoption of the Report and closure of the meeting.

15. After considering the programme of work and the general comments made on the modalities for establishing an African Monetary Fund, the Conference agreed to adjourn its proceedings until Friday, 20 July 1986 in order to give more time to the experts to complete their re-examination of the Draft Articles of Agreement.

F. Consideration of the reports of the Second and Third Meetings of Intergovernmental Group of Experts on the Establishment of an African Monetary Fund (Agenda item 5)

16. The Conference heard reports from the respective chairmen of the second and third meetings of the intergovernmental group of experts on the establishment of an African Monetary Fund. After a brief exchange of views, the Conference decided to take note of the reports.

G. Progress Report on the Preparations for an International Conference on Africa's External Indebtedness (Agenda item 8)

17. A representative of the Organization of African Unity briefed the Conference on the progress made in the preparations for an international conference on Africa's external indebtedness. In this connection, he highlighted the outcome of the meeting of the secretariats of the Organization of African Unity, the Centre for Monetary Studies held in Addis Ababa in December 1985. He also informed the conference of the various meetings that the current Chairman of OAU, President Abdou Diouf, had held with the Secretary General of the United Nations, the Managing Director of the International Monetary Fund, the President of the World Bank and other leaders of some institutions and governments as part of the preparations for an international conference on Africa's external indebtedness.

18. After some discussions, the conference of African Ministers of Finance took note of the progress report and requested the joint secretariat of the four organizations to continue with the preparatory work for the international conference on Africa's external indebtedness.

H. Consideration of whether or not there should be an agreement establishing the fund to which the statutes should be annexed

19. With regard to the question as to whether or not there should be an agreement establishing the Fund to which the Statutes should be annexed, the Conference heard different points of view from the Ministers. After a few general remarks on all issues, the conference decided not to discuss these agenda items during its present session. Instead, the conference decided to adopt a resolution emphasizing their commitment to the establishment of an African Monetary Fund. This resolution also established an Ad-Hoc Committee to be known as the "Committee of Libreville".

20. It was decided that the Committee's membership would be composed of the bureau of the Conference but that all African countries would be invited to participate in the work of the Committee. Its terms of reference would be to speed up the establishment of an African Monetary Fund and to report to the next Conference of African Ministers of Finance. The Committee was also charged with the responsibility of resolving all the outstanding issues and of making recommendations to the next conference on how best the African Monetary Fund can be established. The full text of the resolution is attached to the present report as Annex.

I. Any other business (Agenda item 9)

21. No issues were raised under this agenda item.

J. Adoption of the Report and Closure of the Conference (Agenda item 10)

Resolution of the Conference of African Ministers of Finance of the Economic Commission for Africa

The Conference of Ministers of Finance of the Economic Commission for Africa,

Recalling the decisions of the meeting of Heads of State and Government of the Organization of African Unity taken in Lagos in April 1980, relating in particular to the establishment of an African Monetary Fund,

Convinced of the need to establish such an institution in Africa,

Having taken note of the conclusions of the various meetings of experts and being aware of the complexity of the problems involved in establishing such a Fund,

Drawing inspiration from the advise given by His Excellency Al Hadj Omar Bongo, President of the Republic of Gabon, when he received all the African Ministers of Finance on 22 June 1986 at the Palais Renovation,

1. Decides :

(a) To continue its discussions in order to establish a viable and efficient body built on a solid foundation and thereby contribute to the economic and financial integration of the African continent;

(b) To establish towards that end an ad hoc Ministerial Committee called the Committee of Libreville, composed of representatives of the five subregions of Africa. This Committee will be assisted by the secretariats of the Economic Commission for Africa, the Organization of African Unity, the African Development Bank and the African Centre for Monetary Studies;

(c) in the light of the conclusions of this Conference, the ad hoc Ministerial Committee should take all appropriate measures to ensure the speedy establishment of the African Monetary Fund and to present its report and recommendations to the next Conference of African Ministers of Finance.
