PREFACE

The Knowledge and Library Services Section (KLSS) has reintroduced its monthly Current Awareness bulletin in 2017 to keep staff abreast of new developments in ECA's thematic areas. The revamped LibAlert provides a glimpse into the wealth of our knowledge resources that can be consulted for your research. The LibAlert highlights the New Arrivals in print and electronic collections including eJournals, eBooks, Databases (Articles and Data) and Physical Books that can be checked out of the Library. The Knowledge resources are from a diverse subject coverage including - Business and Economics, Social Sciences, Natural Sciences, Humanities, Health, Statistics, Science and Technology and more.

We also showcase books that our staff have published and discussed with colleagues through our "Book Talk" Knowledge Sharing Events.

In this third Knowledge Management Digest (Volume 3), KLSS presents a compilation of the LibAlerts published in 2017 and 2018 in celebration of the Commission @ 60.

The ECA Knowledge Management Digest is a serial publication that highlights new developments in the area of Knowledge Management and Library services of the Commission. The function is anchored in the Knowledge and Library Services Section (KLSS) within the Public Information and Knowledge Management Division.

BookTalk

The Knowledge and Library Services Section (KLSS) is pleased to announce the launch of its newest service, the 'BOOK TALK - Knowledge Sharing Series', an event organized by KLSS in collaboration with the Communication Section (CS) of PIKMD. The Book talk is a tailored service dedicated to promoting staff publishing. All staff members Commission-wide that have recently published or in the process of publishing are encouraged to contact KLSS to facilitate sharing of their work with their peers through the Knowledge Sharing Series.

The 1st BOOK TALK, a knowledge sharing event organized by PIKMD (the Knowledge and Library Services Section in collaboration with the Communications section) was presented by Mr. George Kararach, on the book he recently edited with Mr. Hany Besada, Mr. Timothy and Mr. Shaw titled "Development in Africa: Refocusing the lens after the Millennium Development Goals". Mr Kararach is an Economic Affairs Officer in the Microeconomics Policy Division (MPD).

The 2nd BOOK TALK was presented by Mr. Robert Tama Lisinge on his dissertation for his PhD that he recently defended titled "Managing Africa's Regional Transport Infrastructure Programmes: Partnerships and Performance". Mr. Lisinge is Chief of Operational Quality Section in Strategic Planning and Operations Quality Division (SPOQD).

In Remembrance of Professor Calestous Juma

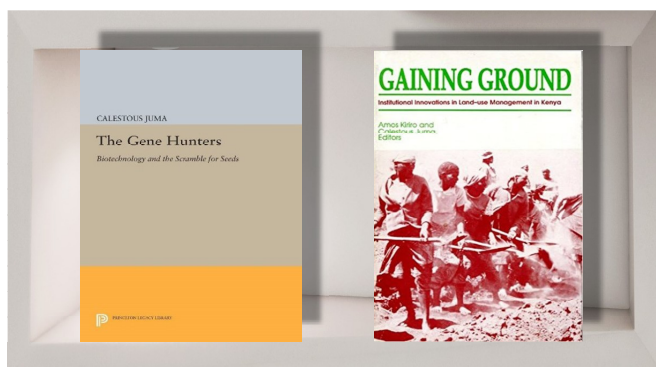

June 19, 1953 — December 15, 2017

Prof. Calestous Juma was an internationally recognized authority, a luminary African scholar, who championed the cause of innovation and technology in transforming African countries, and whose books and papers about the environment, biotechnology, agricultural innovation for development & food security, education, artificial intelligence, cloning and the politics of land in Africa made him a towering figure both in the continent and across the world.

He was Professor of the Practice of International Development and Director of the Science, Technology, and Globalization Project at Belfer Center for Science and International Affairs. He also directed Agricultural Innovation Policy in Africa and Health and Innovation Policy in Africa centers. He served as Faculty Chair of the Innovation for Economic Development at Harvard Kennedy School, Edwards Mason Fellows Program, and Technology, Innovation and Entrepreneurship in Africa executive Programs. The late professor has also authored groundbreaking books in the above noted disciplines.

In recognition of his works and contributions, Prof. Juma has won several international awards and has been elected to several scientific academies.
